ARA Symposium – “Agricultural Insurance in a Changing Climate”

March 6th & 7th 2019

Goal:

Our company is striving to implement climate research results and agricultural statistics into a climate risk information service, benefiting governments and farmers as well as the insurance industry. As part of our mission to close the widely observed agriculture insurance gap, we are organizing this event to raise awareness and discuss the needs for capacity building and training of stakeholders impacted by climate risks in agriculture.
